BY ROBERT WELLES RITCHIE.

PETERSBURG, Va., July 12.—An autopsy of the bodies of Detective James M. Young and Lloyd H. Long, who killed each other last night, while Long was attempting to avoid arrest on a charge of larceny, was held today by Dr. J. E. Nixon, and the bullets removed. The bullet which killed Young, pierced his left side, passed through his heart, and lodged in the right side of the breast.

The bullet which killed Long, cut through the left jugular vein and lodged in the spinal column below the base of the skull, cutting also the spinal cord. The bodies of the two men lie side by side in the morgue of J. T. Morris and Son. The autopsy shows that Young was shot with a .32 caliber pistol, corresponding with the weapon carried by the boy Floyd Clements. Long's pistol was of different caliber. Much importance is attached to this fact, as it indicates the murderer of Young. Acting Coroner C. G. Pleasants summoned a jury and viewed the bodies tonight, and adjourned until 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the inquest will be held. A question has arisen, as to the name of the man killed by Young. It

AUTOPSY IS HELD OVER VICTIMS OF STREET DUEL

Question Arises as to Real Name of Man Called Lloyd
H. Long.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, Va., July 12.—An autopsy of the bodies of Detective James M. Young and Lloyd H. Long, who killed each other last night, while Long was attempting to avoid arrest on a charge of larceny, was held today by Dr. J. E. Nixon, and the bullets removed. The bullet which killed Young, pierced his left side, passed through his heart, and lodged in the right side of the breast.

The bodies of the two men lie side by side in the morgue of J. T. Morris and Son. The autopsy shows that Young was shot with a .32 caliber pistol, corresponding with the weapon carried by the boy Floyd Clements. Long's pistol was of different caliber. Much importance is attached to this fact, as it indicates the murderer of Young. Acting Coroner C. G. Pleasants summoned a jury and viewed the bodies tonight, and adjourned until 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when the inquest will be held. A question has arisen, as to the name of the man killed by Young. It has been given as Lloyd H. Long, of Richmond. In his pockets was found a card bearing the name of Joe Walker Raines, showing he enlisted in the army in Rockingham County, July 17th. It is said that Raines came to Richmond from Danville two months ago, and secured work in the British-American Company's factory. These facts will be presented to the jury tomorrow. The tragedy has aroused wide interest in the community. Young had been on the police force for two or three years, and was recognized as a quiet, efficient officer, fearless in the discharge of his duties. He is survived by two brothers and a sister, the latter living in Richmond.

FUNERAL OF MRS. PURCELL

Services Will Be Held at Holy Trinity Church This Afternoon.

Funeral services for Mrs. Olympia Williamson Purcell, wife of Colonel John B. Purcell, will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the Holy Trinity Church. Mrs. Purcell was seventy-two years of age, and was a daughter of General Thomas H. Williamson, one of the first professors of V. M. I. She is survived by an uncle, Colonel Sidney B. Williamson, of New York City, and four children: Mrs. William Allen, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. Martha Webb, of Anna, N. C.; Mrs. Purcell and Thomas W. Purcell. She is also survived by six grandchildren.

ENLISTMENTS AT CAMP LEE NUMBER 300 FOR WEEK

Recruiting Is Booming, Soldiers Taking Opportunity to Learn at Government Schools.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

CAMP LEE, Va., July 12.—About 300 men have been enlisted at Camp Lee in the last week.

Why men enlist when they fully become conversant with the advantages of the service is apparent when the following is considered. One branch of the army, the motor transport corps, is taken as an example.

It has been hard to learn the majority of the technical trades, but now the motor transport corps is opening schools at Camp Holabird, Baltimore, Md.; Camp Jessup, Atlanta, Ga.; Camp Normoy, San Antonio, Texas, and Camp Hoyt, El Paso, Texas, to teach men who want to learn sixty-eight different trades. Here are a few of the trades taught: Auto repair, general expert; axle and transmission assembling; blacksmith, general; carpenter, chaff; four, draftsman, mechanical; engine assembler, grinder, cylinder operator, grinder, unifier operator; inspectors, auto repair; inspectors, engine; electrician, magneto and ignition; machinist, tool room; upholsterer and trimmer. One enlists for three years for the motor transport school, or, if re-enlisting, for one year. A few weeks of military training and preliminary instruction in order to ascertain which trade a student is best fitted for, then schooling begins in that one trade.

survived by his wife and eight sons and daughters, most of them residents of Petersburg.

GETS AWAY WITH GEM

Clever Crook Switches Glass Imitation Before Broad Street Jeweler.

Leaving a cheap glass imitation in its place, an unidentified negro, at 11 o'clock yesterday, stole a diamond ring from under the nose of a salesman in the Schaaf Jewelry Store, at 428 East Broad Street, and made good his escape before suspicion was aroused. The negro walked into the jewelry establishment about 11 o'clock and asked to see a tray of valuable diamond rings. A salesman produced the tray, and after handling several of the rings, the negro to all appearances replaced all of them and walked out without making a purchase. He stepped into a waiting automobile and was quickly lost in the traffic.

Charge He Stole Tires.

Benjamin Hankins, of 1928 Hull Street, was arrested last night, charged with the theft of two automobile tires and thirteen silk shirts from the American Railway Express Company. The shirts were valued at $84.50.

CHARGE WOMAN WITH USING KNIFE ON CAR CONDUCTOR

W. H. Crigler Goes to Grace Hospital With Several Wounds After Controversy.

Following a controversy over some change on a Broad and Main Street trolley car, Florine Bell, of 1825 Jax Street, a factory worker, was arrested and Conductor W. H. Crigler was taken to Grace Hospital suffering from knife wounds in the wrist, arm and leg, besides having most of his hair in front chopped from his side. The Bell woman was charged on two warrants with feloniously cutting Crigler. Officials of the Grace Hospital reported late last night that the conductor was getting on very well and his condition was not thought to be serious, but that he would probably be confined to the hospital for several days.

PREDICTS COOLER WEATHER

Weather Bureau's Forecast Indicates Thunder Storms During Sunday Will Relieve Tension.

Predictions of cooler weather interspersed today with thunder storms and showers were made last night by the United States Weather Bureau here. A storm of moderate proportions has been reported over certain parts of the Central plains States, including Iowa, Illinois, Missouri and Indiana.

Adams California Fruit Gum Shares in the Conquest of the Air

The R-34 came to America with Adams California Fruit Gum as a necessary member of the crew.

It carried nothing that wasn't essential.

During this great voyage it gave the airmen courage, steadied the nerves of the new Columbuses.

It did its duty in this triumphant struggle against the uncharted spaces just as it served Valor and Victory in every Allied trench for five gruelling years.

And it served so well at a moment and in a place so totally unexpected for its use that the incident was set down in the log of the R-34.

The R-34 sails home with an increased supply of Adams California Fruit Chewing Gum.

The New York World, July 9, says: "The supplies put aboard the R-34 for the return trip, in addition to 5,000 gallons of gasoline, include 200 pounds of bread, 125 pounds of cooked meat, forty-five pounds of potatoes, thirty-six pounds of chocolate, six pounds of tea, some pound cake, jam and plenty of chewing gum. The gum takes the place in a measure of tobacco. The men are forbidden to smoke during the voyage."

The thinking man's, the fighting man's nerve ration.
